Remember the times when just doing "little" things were so much fun and meant so much

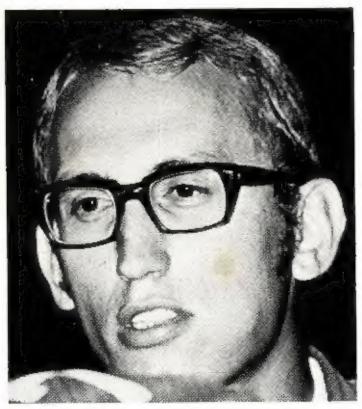

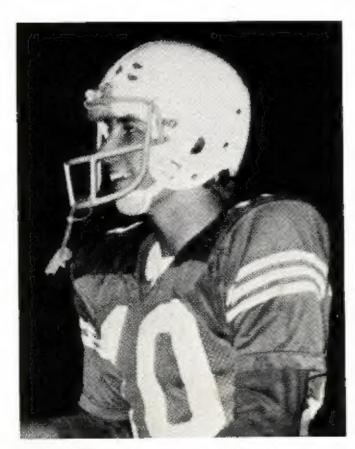

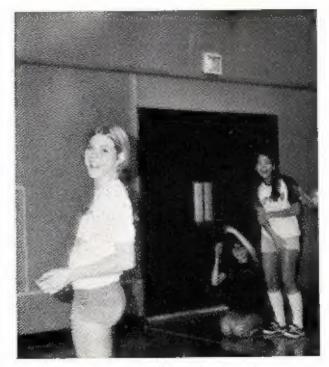

"I always chew fifty pieces of bubble gum."

P.E. class gives exercise in laughing.

Robert Edwards scores again.

"You've got to be kidding."

The inseparables are caught again.

The captivity of a moment can only be caged in our memories. Sometimes pictures project feelings that words cannot express.

Kenny has not quite mastered the evil eye technique for Scott is still alive.

Who would ever suspect one single freshman not studying in such scholarly ways?

Lockers are the usual gossip stopping grounds for many junior girls.

Mary concentrates upon step by step procedure in a Biology experiment.

Through this toilsome world, alas!
Once and only once I pass;
If a kindness I may show,
If a good deed I may do
To a suffering fellow man,
Let me do it while I can.
No delay, for it is plain
I shall not pass this way again.

This page is reserved every year for the editor of the annual. I wish to dedicate my page to the memory of Nancy Pittman.

My classmates and I would like to express our gratitude and appreciation for the beautiful Memory Garden given to our school by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pittman. They brought to us a warm and wonderful person, so full of life. Nancy will always be held close to our hearts.

Farewell, Dear Friend

Farewell, dear friend, no longer will I see the friendly warmth of the smile that used to comfort me.

You were my friend to the end; you never let me down.

And now I ask the strength of God, since you're not around.

Your jokes and laughter I'll hear no more, they're now things of the past,

But all the good things we shared before will last, and last, and last,

How cold and hostile death must be to take one such as she.

So give us strength to carry on; O, Lord, I pray to Thee.

So, enclosing to my last farewell. (I wish you were around to hear),

My loss of a friend will linger on for many a coming year.

Life is to be fortified by many friendships — To love and to be loved is the greatest happiness of existence.

Syndey Smith

There is always a lot of tension and excitement that builds up during a pep rally.

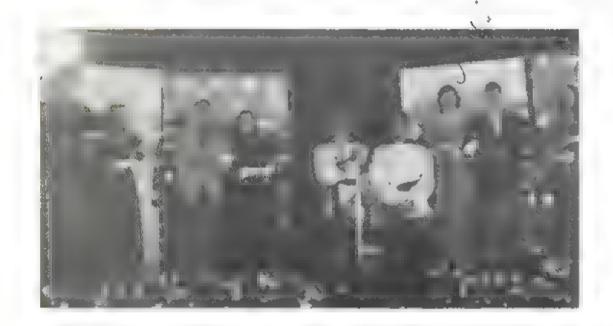

Happiness is possible only when one is busy. The body must toil, the mind must be occupied and the heart must be satisfied.

Those who do good as opportunity offers are sowing seed all the time, and they need not doubt the harvest.

Mr. Orlan Weems, a delightful speaker, uses Jan S., David M., and Bob B. to test for radioactivity.

This is no hair raising experience for Andrea

See the World Through Children's Eyes

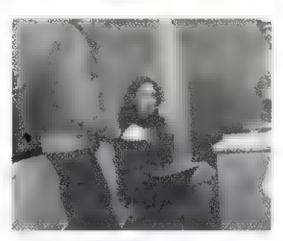

If only we could see the world through children's eyes We'd see a wonderful thing in a butterfly flying by, The great fun of flying a kite,
And trying as hard as they might,
Running in fields of golden wheat,
Playing in the rain in our bare feet,
Climbing in a tree when playing hide and seek,
The joy of stepping stones in a small creek,
If only we could see the world through children's eyes.

From the time of birth till death, people continue to challenge new goals either by studying among friends, discovering the impact of power, seeking advice from the wise, climbing the tallest mountain, or sliding down from the dreams of heaven to the realities on earth.

CHAMPION MOTOR HOMES

Our Champion motor homes may very well make motels obsolete.

And why not? Since everything that's convenient in a motel is more like home in a Champion.

Things like a kitchenette complete with hooded range and stainless steel sink. Roomy dining and lounging areas. Plus a private bath. Champion gives you all the room you can handle.

These are just a few of the reasons a Champion motor home has it all over a motel (coming and going).
